

Keith McAdam

Keith worked at Seaview Hospital as a Support Worker then moved to PACT, an NGO that looks after disabled people in the community. Keith spent the last eight years at PACT as a coordinator working at various houses supporting clients with mental and intellectual disabilities. Keith firmly believes that it is never too late to give something back to the community.

Keith's viewpoint and perspectives focus on the needs of people with mental and intellectual disabilities.

Now, as a consumer of health services as an older person, Keith has a particular interest in older people's health and is dedicated to improve all aspects of older people's health, wellbeing and treatment.

Based in Hokitika and active in the local community Keith enjoys playing darts, tai-chi, golf and reading.
